Freeport Wins Gold Award in AAA's Annual Traffic Safety Program

The Village of Freeport has won a Gold Award in AAA Northeast's Community Traffic Safety Awards Program, Director, Public / Government Affairs & Traffic Safety, John Corlett announced today.

The village was cited for its many traffic safety efforts including focused speeding and stop sign enforcement at targeted locations, as well as Stop DWI programs.

All award winners in the New York metropolitan area were honored during a luncheon ceremony held October 15th at The Carlton in East Meadow. AAA Northeast, the local AAA affiliate, presented a total of 46 awards.

AAA has long recognized communities that make outstanding efforts to make the region's roads safer for motorists, bicyclists, and pedestrians.

AAA Northeast is a not-for-profit auto club with 61 offices in New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Massachusetts and Rhode Island, providing more than 5.1 million local AAA members with travel, insurance, finance and auto-related services.
